(d) to provide and maintain a Club House and grounds for the accommodation of members and their guests and the slipping, docking and storage of members' yachts;

(e) to organise for the benefit of members and their guests, such social functions as may from time to time be determined by the Committee.

- (2) In addition to the basic objects of the Club, the objects and purposes of the Club shall be deemed to include: -
- (a) the purchase, taking on lease or in exchange, and the hiring or otherwise acquiring of any real or personal property that may be deemed necessary or convenient for any of the objects or purposes of the Club;
 - (b) the buying, selling, and supplying of, and dealing in, goods of all kinds;
 - (c) the construction, maintenance, and alteration of buildings or works necessary or convenient for any of the objects or purposes of the Club;
 - (d) the accepting of any gift, whether subject to a special trust or not, for any one or more of the objects or purposes of the Club;
 - (e) the taking of such steps from time to time as the Committee or the members in general meeting may deem expedient for the purpose of procuring contributions to the funds of the Club, whether by way of donations, subscriptions, or otherwise;
 - (f) the printing and publishing of such newspapers, periodicals, books, leaflets or other documents as the Committee or the members in general meeting may think desirable for the promotion of the objects and purposes of the Club;
 - (g) the borrowing and raising of money in such manner and on such terms as the Committee may think fit or as may be approved or directed by resolution passed at a general meeting;
 - (h) subject to the provisions of the 'Trustee Act 1898', the investment of any monies of the Club not immediately required for any of its objects or purposes in such manner as the Committee may from time to time determine;
 - (i) the marking of gifts, subscriptions, or donations to any of the funds, authorities, or institutions to which paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 78 of the 'Income Tax and Social Services Contribution Assessment Act 1936 – 1964' of the Commonwealth relates;
 - (j) the establishment and support, or aiding in the establishment and support, of associations; institutions, funds, trusts, schemes and conveniences calculated to benefit servants or past servants of the Club and their dependents, and the granting of persons, allowances, or other benefits to servants or past servants of the Club and their dependents, and the making of payments towards insurance in relation to any of the purposes;
 - (k) the establishment and support, or in the aiding in the establishment and support, or any other association formed for any basic objects of the Club;
 - (l) the purchase of acquisition, and undertaking of all or any part of the property, assets, liabilities, and engagements of any association with which the Club may at any time become amalgamated in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the rules of the Club; and
 - (m) the doing of all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the basic objects of the Club or any of the objects and purposes specified in the foregoing provisions of this sub-rule.

5. Membership of the Club

- (1) A person who is nominated and approved for membership as provided in these rules is eligible to be a member of the Club on payment of the annual subscription prescribed in, or fixed under, these rules.
- (2) A person who is not a member of the Club at the time of the incorporation of the Club shall not be admitted to membership –
 - (a) unless he is nominated as provided in sub-rule (3) of this rule; and
 - (b) his admission as a member is approved by the Committee.
- (3) A nomination of a person for membership of the Club –
 - (a) shall be made in writing, signed by two members of the Club;
 - (b) shall be accompanied by the written consent of the person nominated (which may be endorsed on the form of nomination); and
 - (c) shall be lodged with the Secretary of the Club.
- (4) The members of the Club will consist of –
 - (a) Honorary Life Members

The Committee of its own motion, or on the proposal of any ten (10) members, shall have the power to elect as an Honorary Life member any member of long standing who in the opinion of the Committee has over a long period of years (e.g., ten years) rendered outstanding meritorious service to the Club, but such an election shall not take effect unless and until it is confirmed by a three-quarters majority of members present at the Annual General Meeting. An Honorary Life member shall not be required to pay any subscriptions, but shall be entitled to all the privileges and benefits of financial membership.
 - (b) Honorary Members

Persons over the age of eighteen (18) years may be admitted as Honorary member by the Secretary or two members of the Committee for a period of twenty eight (28) days. Such persons shall be eligible to be admitted as an Honorary member under this rule, for a longer period in anyone (1) year at the discretion of the Committee.
 - (c) Senior Members

Persons of either sex of good character and repute, whether owners of yachts or not, but who are eighteen (18) years of age or over, are eligible for Senior membership.
 - (d) Junior Members

Persons of either sex under the age of eighteen (18) years shall be eligible for Junior membership.
 - (e) Associate Members

Any non-sailing person is eligible for Associate membership.

- (5) Family membership shall consist of at least one parent or guardian and his or her children under eighteen (18) years of age. Each person admitted to membership under this sub-rule shall be known as a Family member but a Family member over the age of eighteen (18) years of age shall be deemed for all the purposes of this Constitution to be a Senior member, and a Family member under the age of eighteen (18) years shall be deemed to be a Junior member for all the purposes of this constitution.
- (6) As soon as is practical after the receipt of a nomination, the Secretary shall refer the nomination to the Committee.
- (7) Upon a nomination being approved by the Committee, the Secretary shall, with as little delay as possible, notify the nominee, in writing, that he has been approved for membership of the Club, and, upon receipt of the sum payable by or on behalf of the nominee as his first year's subscription and entrance fee, shall enter the nominee's name in a register of members to be kept by the Secretary, whereupon the nominee becomes a member of the Club.
- (8) A member of the Club may, at any time, resign from the Club by delivering or sending by post to the Secretary a written notice of resignation.
- (9) Upon receipt of a notice under sub-rule (8) of this rule, the Secretary shall remove the name of the member by whom the notice was given from the register of members, whereupon that member ceases to be a member of the Club.
- (10) A right, privilege, or obligation of a person by virtue of his membership of the Club –
 - (a) is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person; and
 - (b) terminates upon the cessation of his membership, whether by death, resignation, or otherwise.
- (11) In the event of the Club being wound up –
 - (a) every member of the Club; and
 - (b) every person who, within the period of twelve months immediately preceding the commencement of the winding up, was a member of the Club, is liable to contribute to the assets of the Club for payment of the debts or liabilities of the Club and for the costs, charges, and expenses of the winding up and for the adjustment of the rights on the contributories among themselves such sum, not exceeding one dollar as may be required, but a former member is not liable so to contribute in respect of any debt or liability of the Club contracted after he ceased to be a member.

6. Income and Property of the Club

- (1) The income of the Club shall consist of –
 - (a) subscriptions and entrance fees;
 - (b) subsidiary charges;
 - (c) donations;
 - (d) income from fund-raising activities undertaken by the Club; and
 - (e) income from such other sources as the Committee may from time to time determine.

- (2) The income and property of the Club, however derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects and purposes of the Club and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by dividend, bonus, or otherwise, to any member of the Club.
- (3) The Club shall not –
 - (a) appoint a person who is a member of the Committee to any office in the gift of the Club to the holder of such there is payable any remuneration by way of salary, fees, or allowances; or
 - (b) pay to any such person any remuneration or other benefits in money or money's worth (other than the repayment of out-of-pocket expenses).
- (4) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this rule prevents the payment in good faith to a servant or member of the Club of-
 - (a) remuneration in return for services actually rendered to the Club by the servant or member or for goods supplied to the Club by the servant or member in the ordinary course of business;
 - (b) interest at a rate not exceeding seven and one-quarter per cent on moneys lent to the Club by the servant or member; or
 - (c) a reasonable and proper sum by way of rent for premises let to the Club by the servant or member.

7. Accounts of Receipts, Expenditure, etc.

- (1) True accounts shall be kept –
 - (a) of all sums of money received and expended by the Club and the matter in respect of which the receipt or expenditure takes place;
 - (b) of the property, credits, and liabilities of the Club, and subject to any reasonable restrictions as to time and manner or inspecting them as may be imposed by the Club for the time being, those accounts shall be open to the inspection of the members of the Club.
- (2) The Treasurer of the Club shall faithfully keep all general records, accounting books, and records of receipts and expenditure connected with the operations and business of the Club in such form and manner as the Committee may direct.
- (3) The accounts, books, and records referred to in sub-rule (1) and (2) of this rule shall be kept at the Club's Office or any such other place as the Committee may decide.

8. Banking and Financials

- (1) The Club must open an account with a financial institution from which all expenditure of the Club is made and into which all of the Club's revenue is deposited.
- (2) Subject to any restrictions imposed by a general meeting of the Club, the Committee may approve expenditure on behalf of the Club.
- (3) The Committee may authorise the Treasurer to expend funds on behalf of the Club (including by electronic funds transfer) up to a specified limit without requiring approval from the Committee for each item on which the funds are expended.

- (4) All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments must be signed by 2 Committee members.
- (5) All funds of the Club must be deposited into the financial account of the Club as soon as practicable after receipt.
- (6) With the approval of the Committee, the Treasurer may maintain a cash float provided that all money paid from or paid into the float is accurately recorded at the time of the transaction.

9. Auditor

- (1) At each Annual General Meeting of the Club, the members present shall appoint a person as the auditor of the Club.
- (2) A person so appointed shall hold office until the Annual General Meeting next after that at which he is appointed, and is eligible for re-appointment.
- (3) The first auditor of the Club may be appointed by the Committee before the first Annual General Meeting, and, if so appointed, shall hold office until the first Annual General Meeting, unless previously removed by a resolution of the members at a general meeting, in which case, the members at that meeting may appoint an auditor to act until the first Annual General Meeting.
- (4) If an appointment is not made at an Annual General Meeting the Committee shall appoint an auditor of the Club for the then current financial year of the Club.
- (5) Except as provided in sub-rule (3) of this rule, the auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution.
- (6) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor during the course of a financial year of the Club, the Committee may appoint a person as the auditor and the person so appointed shall hold office until the next succeeding Annual General Meeting.

10. Audit of Accounts

- (1) As often as required by the committee or a special meeting, the accounts shall be examined by the auditor.
- (2) The auditor shall quantify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Club and shall report thereon to the members present at the Annual General Meeting.
- (3) In his report, and in certifying to the accounts, the auditor shall state –
 - (a) whether he has obtained the information required by him;
 - (b) whether, in his opinion, the accounts are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Club according to the information at his disposal and the explanations given to him and as shown by the books or the Club; and
 - (c) whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Club have been observed.
- (4) The Secretary of the Club shall cause to be delivered to the auditor a list of all the accounts, books, and records of the Club.

- (5) The Auditor –
 - (a) has a right of access to the accounts, books, records, vouchers, and documents of the Club;
 - (b) may require from the servants of the Club such information and explanations as may be necessary for the performance of his duties as auditor;
 - (c) may employ persons to assist him in investigating the accounts of the Club; and
 - (d) may, in relation to the accounts of the Club, examine any member of the Committee or any servant of the Club.

11. Annual General Meeting

- (1) The Club shall, in each calendar year, hold an Annual General Meeting.
- (2) The Annual General Meeting shall be held on such day (being no later than three months after the close of the financial year of the Club) as the Committee may determine.
- (3) The Annual General Meeting shall be in addition to any other general meetings that may be held in the same year.
- (4) The Annual General Meeting shall be specified as such in the notice convening it.
- (5) The ordinary business of the Annual General Meeting shall be –
 - (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding Annual General Meeting and of any general meetings held since that meeting;
 - (b) to receive from the Committee, auditor, and servants of the Club reports upon the transactions of the Club during the last preceding financial year;
 - (c) to elect the officers of the Club and the ordinary Committeemen;
 - (d) to appoint the auditor and determine his remuneration;
 - (e) to determine the remuneration of servants of the Club; and
 - (f) to review annual subscriptions, entrance fees and subsidiary charges.
- (6) The Annual General Meeting may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with these rules.
- (7) All general meetings other than the Annual General Meeting shall be called special general meetings.

12. Special General Meeting

- (1) The Committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a special general meeting of the Club.
- (2) The Committee shall, on requisition in writing of not less than ten members, convene a special general meeting of the Club.

- (3) A requisition for a special general meeting shall state the objects of the meeting and shall be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the office of the Club and may consist of several documents in the like form, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists.
- (4) If the Committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within twenty-one days from the date on which a requisition therefore is deposited at the office of the Club, the requisitionists, or any of them, may convene the meeting; but any such meeting so convened shall not be held after three months from the date of the deposit of the requisition.
- (5) A special general meeting convened by requisitionists in pursuance of these rules shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which those meetings are convened by the Committee, and all reasonable expenses incurred in convening the meeting shall be refunded by the Club to the persons incurring them.

13. Notices of General Meetings

Except where a general meeting is called in accordance with rule 32 (5) hereof the Secretary of the Club shall, at least fourteen days before the date fixed for holding a general meeting of the Club, place notice of the General Meeting(s) in an appropriate public communication medium specifying the place, day and time for the holding of the meeting, and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat.

14. Business and Quorum at General Meetings

 - (b) specifying the grounds for expulsion; and
 - (c) informing the member that if he so desires, he may, within fourteen days after the service of the notice on him, appeal against the expulsion as provided in this rule.
- (4) A member on whom a notice under sub-rule (3) of this rule is served may appeal against the expulsion to a special general meeting by delivering or sending by post to the Secretary of the Club, within fourteen days after the service of that notice, a requisition in writing demanding the convening of such a meeting for the purpose of hearing his appeal.
- (5) Upon receipt of a requisition under sub-rule (4) of this rule, the Secretary shall forthwith notify the Committee of the receipt and the Committee shall thereupon cause a special general meeting of members to be held within twenty-one days after the date on which the requisition is received by the Secretary.
- (6) At a special general meeting convened for the purpose of this rule –
 - (a) no business other than the question of the expulsion shall be transacted;
 - (b) the Committee may place before the meeting details of the grounds of the expulsion and the Committee's reason for the expulsion;
 - (c) the expelled member shall be given an opportunity to be heard; and
 - (d) the members present shall vote by secret ballot on the question whether the expulsion should be lifted or confirmed.
- (7) If at the special general meeting a majority of the members present vote in favour of the lifting of the expulsion, the expulsion shall be deemed to have been lifted and the expelled member is entitled to continue his membership of the Club.
- (8) If at the special general meeting a majority of the members present vote in favour of the confirmation of the expulsion, the expulsion takes effect, and the expelled member ceases to be a member of the Club.
- (9) The Secretary of the Club shall at least fourteen days before the date fixed for holding a special general meeting of the Club convened for the purposes of this rule, forward notice in writing specifying the place, day and time for the holding of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat to each member of the Club.

33. Disputes

- (1) Subject to this rule, a dispute between a member of the Club, in his capacity as a member, and the Club, shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the 'Arbitration Act 1892'.
- (2) Nothing in this rule effects the operation of rule 32.

34. Seal of the Club

- (1) The Seal of the Club shall be in the form of a rubber stamp, inscribed with the name of the Club encircling the word 'Seal'.
- (2) The seal of the Club shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the Committee, and the affixing thereof shall be attested by the signatures either of the members of the Committee or of one member of the Committee and of the Secretary of the Club or such other person as the Committee may appoint for that purpose, and that attestation is sufficient for all purposes that the seal was affixed by authority of the Committee.
- (3) The seal shall remain in the custody of the Secretary.

35. Amendment to Rules and Objects

These rules, including the objects and purposes set out in rule 4, may be altered or added to by the Club at a special general meeting on notice of motion being given provided that the notice of motion is received by the Secretary of the Club in writing signed by the proposer and seconder of the motion at least twenty-one (21) days before the date of the special general meeting and such motion must be passed by a three quarters majority of the votes cast (and such motion be included in the notice of meeting). The approval of the Registrar of Companies must be obtained before the resolution becomes binding.
